

READING AND WRITING PROGRAM 2018

OBJECTIVES

- Secures letter knowledge
- Improves reading, spelling and handwriting skills
- Fosters automaticity by emphasizing on memory work and speed of retrieval
- Ensures a good foundation for understanding literacy concepts e.g. suffixing, spelling rules, syllable division etc.
- Develops strategies to increase the capacity for storing information in working memory in order to support classroom activities

Program:

This program is a structured, phonics-based, multi-sensory program teaching literacy to learners with learning difficulties.

Content:

Alphabet work, memory training, reading, spelling, handwriting, dictation, revision, and games

Instructor:

An experienced special needs teacher with postgraduate training in literacy support and years of experience working with SEN children in various educational settings

Fees:

Individual class
($950/60min; $750/45min)
Small group (less than 5)
($650/75min)

Venue: ChildPsy Assessment and Learning

Address: Unit A, 1/F, 1 Suffolk Road, Kowloon Tong

Telephone: 2348-6222

Email address:
info@childpsy.com

